

Bertram Canzler | CV

1972 - 1978 Studied for degree in mechanical engineering and physics

1979 - 1982 Studied for degree in industrial economics

1998 - Joined the Berlin Chamber of Building

Since 1979 Project engineer specialising in building automation and building technology, management and steering of major projects
Managing director of Canzler GmbH

Since 2012 University of Westphalia – part-time lecturer on Master's course in integral planning.

Press: About 40 publications from 1980 to the present in specialist German and international journals and books.

Work in associations Member and coadjutor of 20 national and international associations, including the Association of Consultant Engineers (VBI), DIN Na Bau (Standards Committee for Building and Construction) and NHRS (Standards Committee for Heating, Room Ventilation, Sanitary Equipment and Facility Management).

